By JOSEPH A. WEST.
In picking an all-star amateur baseball team from any league, the picker is more picked against than picking, but especially so in amateur leagues. Therefore, the task of selecting an all-star team from the Capital City League is a very difficult problem, for where one is selected another is slighted, and as there are many players playing the same positions, selecting this all-star team is based entirely on the individual batting and fielding averages and the ability the men possess to think quick and, at the same time, accurately. Also to be prepared at critical stages of the game.

With the Amateurs

By Joseph A. West.

The Old Dominion League championship will probably be determined tomorrow, when Tylers and Kahns clash at Broad Street Park at 10 o'clock.

If Kahns win, "one more game must be played," if Tylers win, it is over.

"Beau" Hoen, who played first base for Benedictine College during 1912 and 1913, has been playing the initial sack for the Greenbrier Camp team for the past two months.

The college authorities are trying to secure a good coach and have three men in view—Earle Lutz (Richmond College), Billy Wood (R. L. I. B.) and Harry Griffin (Richmond baseball team).

Which of these men will be picked is not known, but the college will make every effort to have a good coach and a winning team this fall. Adjoining the college is a beautiful campus, where practice can be held.

"Park" Rogers is expected to sign with the Grays for 1914. He is a good pitcher, and should be a great help and strength to the militiamen.

Chittum, the stubby little utility man for Kahns team, in the Old Dominion League, will accompany Dr. Price and his Grays to Washington to-day. Chittum will be on the coaching line, and those who have seen him perform know what a time can be expected.

Riley, of the Indians team, in the West End League, is battling 37 and pitches in fine form, quite a batter for a twirler, eh?

Williams, the strong-arm catcher of the Indians, and Wilson, fielder of the same team, have a tied batting record of .431.

Dr. Parker's Battle Axes are in Suffolk. They went there yesterday morning and will return tomorrow night. They will play four games with the Suffolk team.

"Lou" Bowers, of the Kahns team, is a pitcher of good calibre and should be an added force to some class A team.

Those to accompany Dr. Price to Washington Sunday afternoon are Bill Ross, assistant manager; Alton Dillon, scorer; Louis O'Neil, mascot; Blount, Canapa, Poh, Dunn, Redford, Bigbey (captain), Nelson, Orebough, Morgan, Saracino, Dowden and Lehman make up the team.

Chittum, Klein, Onesty and Umpire Wilcox will also go. Mr. Wilcox will officiate in the intercity games, with the help of a Washington ump.

The West End League will close next Saturday.

The Commercial League champion will not be announced until late League officials decide the protested games Saturday, August 23, between Crafts and Home Brewing Company.

The Washington Bankers are strong, and the game with the Grays is expected to draw a large crowd. Maybe President Wilson will come out. Who can tell?

A good game is expected Tuesday, when the all-star Newspaper League meets the all-star C. C. A. team at C. C. A. grounds. The game will start at 4:30 o'clock.

Come to Byrd Park Saturday, September 6, if you want to see a real amateur game—Grays vs. "Cleave" Bailey's all stars.

Whitlow is playing in big style.

terial in this Class AA League is not playing on one team, but scattered throughout the various teams.

Both of these men are valuable, and may some day be seen wearing a big league uniform.

The pitcher, Canapa, Blanton and Wright, were picked because of their control and head work and ability to field the mound position.

The infield, with Bigbey as captain, will no doubt meet with the approval of the majority of amateur followers on account of its fast, snappy, but sure, basemen, with a shortstop hard to beat.

The outfield is fast, and with such a player as Saracino in centre to back up both the other outer gardeners, it would be a hard matter to secure a home run.

The utility player, "Plug" Amos, now playing second base for Barton Heights, has at different times played every position on the team from catcher to right field, and while he is not rated as a pitcher, "Plug" can fool a few batters with his binders.

Horace Wrights won the championship in the Central League by a large margin.

The Bankers from Washington will play the Grays here Saturday, September 20, at Broad Street Park.

The Richmond League is closed. Portners are champions and have a strong team.

The Southside League closed Saturday with the R. E. Co. leaders in the race.

"Plug" Amos will remain with the Barton Heights team for next season. It was rumored that he would join the Grays.

Manager Clements, of Kahns of Richmond, has an idea of getting a picked team from the Old Dominion League to play a picked team from the Capital City League some time in the near future, and if there is a manager in the Capital City League that would like to take this up he can communicate with the Amateur Sporting Editor of The Times-Dispatch.

The game that is to be played tomorrow morning between Kahns and Tylers should prove to be a fast one, as both managers state that their teams are in the best of condition. The game will be played at Broad Street Park and will begin at 10 o'clock.

Slick Haskins, pitcher for Horace Wrights team, in the Central League, is expected to sign with the Barton Heights team for 1914.

The Richmond Blues' football squad has been tendered the use of the Church Civic Association's athletic field for night practice. More light will be placed on the field, and some good practice is expected by the Blues' coach, "Billy" Sitterlin.

The Crafts players will cross bats with the Grays tomorrow night.

Gray is catching a nice game for Crafts, and it takes a mighty fast runner to piff a base on him.

The Richmond Grays had a signal practice yesterday at Byrd Park and are in fine condition for the oncoming battle tomorrow.

RIVERSIDE LEAGUE

Hickorys Win Pennant; Life Insurance Co. of Va. Team Second.

The Hickorys won the pennant in the Riverside League, with the Life Insurance Company of Virginia a close second. The Insurance boys took the Clippers place at the bottom of the league, and worked their way to second place, but did not have time to capture the rag. The Insurance boys have a fast little team, and played better ball than any other team in the league, and won most of their games during the season. This team is expected to go into a higher class league next year.

This lineup can show any young team in the city what baseball is.

MISCELLANEOUS

Tigers to Hold Football Meeting.

On Wednesday, September 3, the Tigers will hold their annual meeting at 414 North Eighth Street, to elect the captain and manager for the coming season.

Much interest has been shown by the old members, and they are all anxious to re-organize and show the football loving public of Richmond that they can still play the kind of ball that won games for them in the past three years.

With Poh, Midget, Fliche, Forbes and Betts, a new corner, the team is well-hatched with the combination, and have little to fear.

To build up a strong line will be no easy proposition. Hoover, Fleet, Horcom, Teefey, McGeorge and Pringle are the only old material.

Judging from reports, the new arrivals will make the old members get up and hustle for their positions.

Amos, an end, comes highly recommended, and with Holland, Hancock, Simpson, Gates, Booker, Lester, Atkinson and Robins, the prospects for a good line is fair.

The services of Vaughan-Lloyd and Litchfield. These two boys are cracking good players, and should make their respective teams valuable men.

The meeting will be held at 414 North Eighth Street Wednesday night, September 3, at 8:30 o'clock.

The Tigers are anxious for games, and any state or city team desiring games will please communicate with acting manager L. J. Teefey, 414 North Eighth Street.

Open dates are as follows: October 4, 11, 18, 25; November 1, 8, 15, 22 and 29.

Catholics Win Again.

McGill Catholic Union defeated the Tip Tops by the score of 3 to 0 yesterday afternoon at C. C. A. Ball Park.

Murphy, for McGill, pitched a remarkable ball, allowing but two hits and striking out seven.

With three men on base and one out in the first inning, the Tip Tops were unable to score.

Fast fielding prevailed throughout the game.

Centrefelder Fagan, for McGill, accepted four difficult chances.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
McGill 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 0—3 5 2
Tip Tops 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 2 2

Batteries: Murphy and Maszie, McGill; Smith and Taylor and Thedick, Tip Tops.

No Game Played.

No game was played yesterday between the Grays and "Cleave" Bailey's all-stars, but on Saturday, September 6, these two teams will be pitted against each other.

The all-star line-up will be: Word, catcher; Blanton, pitcher; Doggett, shortstop; Hulcher, first base; McRee, second base; Augustine, third base, and W. Sitterlin, Richardson and Shelton in the garden.

Cleave Bailey will manage from the bench, and probably if the game goes wrong, this little individual will bench some one and manage from the field.

Furniture Team to Take Trip.

The Main Street Furniture Company's baseball team will journey to Clayville, Va. Sunday night to play three games Monday, one in the morning and two in the afternoon. Some good games are expected, as they have played twice, the furniture boys winning the first 7 to 5 and losing the second in the thirteenth inning 2 to 1. They have won sixteen out of twenty-one games played this season.

The line-up will be as follows: Harmon, catcher; Goodman and Collins,
